Part II Activities and Operational Information

- 1 Provide a detailed narrative description of all the activities of the organization—past, present, and planned. Do not merely refer to or repeat the language in the organizational document. Describe each activity separately in the order of importance. Each description should include, as a minimum, the following: (a) a detailed description of the activity including its purpose; (b) when the activity was or will be initiated; and (c) where and by whom the activity will be conducted.

The National Heritage Foundation, Inc. has no past or present activities. It plans to encourage the undertaking of projects that in the opinion of its Board of Directors will tend to restore, maintain or extend the national heritage of the United States of America, and the national heritages of selected countries around the world. Each project undertaken will be accounted for separately in a segregated account. The National Heritage Foundation staff will exercise its best efforts that each project undertaken will qualify individually as a publicly supported activity, thus insuring that the National Heritage Foundation itself will continue to qualify as a publicly supported foundation, passing the public support test as provided by law.

The National Heritage Foundation, Inc. is deeply concerned about the future of the United States of America and many of the countries that join us in a community of nations. Our heritage of joining together to solve community problems has been seriously challenged by the rise of bigger and bigger governmental programs. It is not to say that NHF is opposed to governmental solution of community problems. It is only to say that NHF feels that a stronger private philanthropic response makes for a healthier and more prosperous tomorrow.

Without offering a "commission" - which is a legal method of compensation that is frowned upon by many in the fund raising community - the NHF will seek to encourage members of the financial community, attorneys, accountants, stockbrokers, real estate agents, insurance underwriters, bankers and other financial planners to undertake a greater role in directing resources to the private charitable sector. As outlined in "fund raising activities" below, efforts will be made (a) to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, and at the same time (b) restrict payment to a reasonable portion of the gifts made. It is indeed unfortunate, and NHF is appalled, that charitable fund raising costs are so inordinately high these days. Every effort will be brought to bear to bring fund raising costs down to reasonable levels.

- 2 What are or will be the organization's sources of financial support? List in order of size.

Contributions from wealthy individuals 60%
 Contributions from government or agencies 0%
 Contributions from other foundations 0%
 Contributions from the general public 40%

- 3 Describe the organization's fundraising program, both actual and planned, and explain to what extent it has been put into effect. Include details of fundraising activities such as selective mailings, formation of fundraising committees, use of volunteers or professional fundraisers, etc. Attach representative copies of solicitations for financial support.

NHF Fund Raising program has not been put into effect. NHF plans to use the Development Associates Plan currently being used by the Pacific Christian College (attached). This plan has been approved by the National Committee on Planned Giving (NCPG) and the Evangelical Association for ~~Financial Accountability (ECPA)~~

- a Is a church, interchurch organization of local units of a church, a convention or association of churches, or an integrated auxiliary of a church (see instructions);
